FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

Disputes to Trans Union and Equifax

14. On information and belief, on a date better known to Defendants Trans Union and Equifax, Trans Union and Equifax prepared and issued credit reports concerning the Plaintiff that included inaccurate information.

15. The inaccurate information specifically related to a PNC Bank account, that Plaintiff alleges the charge off date is incorrect and the credit file contains the wrong last payment date as well as no proper designation of last payment.
16. Plaintiff notified Trans Union that he disputed the accuracy of the information Trans Union was reporting, on or around December 10, 2017 specifically stating in a letter that he was disputing the PNC Bank account since the charge off date was incorrect as well as notations regarding the last payment date.
17. Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by Trans Union, PNC failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account, by continuing to report an incorrect past due amount, and no proper charge off date.
18. Additionally the Defendant PNC failed to mark the account as disputed, despite promises to the Plaintiff it would do so.
19. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the dispute account, Trans Union did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.
20. Plaintiff notified Equifax that he disputed the accuracy of the information Equifax was reporting, on or around December 10, 2017 specifically stating in a letter that he was disputing the PNC Bank account since the charge off date was incorrect as well as notations regarding the last payment date.

21. Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by Equifax, PNC failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account, by continuing to report the account as charge with no information regarding the charge off or any late payment.
22. Additionally the Defendant PNC failed to mark the account as disputed, despite promises to the Plaintiff it would do so.
23. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the dispute account, Equifax did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Trans Union)

36. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully state herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

63. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Equifax in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n) and 1681o.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Chaim Glick, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Equifax, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Defendant PNC Bank.)

64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully state herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.
65. This is an action for willful violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.,
66. Pursuant to the Act, all person who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.
67. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.
68. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as PNC Bank must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.
69. The Defendant PNC violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681s2-b by the publishing of the Account Liability Representation; by failing to fully and improperly investigate the dispute of the Plaintiff with respect to the Account Liability Representation; by failing to review all relevant information regarding same by failing to correctly report results of an accurate investigation to the credit reporting agencies.

70. Specifically the Defendant PNC continued to report this account on the Plaintiff's credit report after being notified that the charge off and late payment information was incorrect.

71. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of the Defendants, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.

72. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant PNC was willful, rendering Defendant PNC liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1601(n).

73. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Defendant PNC in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1601(n).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Chaim Glick, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant PNC for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligent Violation of the FCRA as to Defendant PNC Bank)

74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully state herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

75. This is an action for negligent violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.,

76. Pursuant to the Act, all person who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.
77. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.
78. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as Defendant PNC must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.
79. After receiving the Dispute Notice from Trans Union and Equifax, Defendant PNC negligently failed to conduct its reinvestigation in good faith.
80. A reasonable investigation would require a furnisher such as the above Defendant PNC to consider and evaluate a specific dispute by the consumer, along with all other facts, evidence and materials provided by the agency to the furnisher.
81. Defendant PNC continued to report this account on the Plaintiff's credit report after being notified of the dispute regarding the charge off status and late payment information.
82. Furthermore the Defendant PNC failed to mark the account as disputed, as requested by the Plaintiff and required under law.
83. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant PNC was negligent, entitling the Plaintiff to recover actual damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

84. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of the Defendant PNC, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.

85. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from the Defendant PNC in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1601(n) and 1681o.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Chaim Glick, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendants, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681(n).

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

86. Plaintiff demands and hereby respectfully requests a trial by jury for all claims and issues this complaint to which Plaintiff is or may be entitled to a jury trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment from the each Defendant as follows:

- a) For actual damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o(a) be awarded for each negligent violation as alleged herein;
- b) For actual damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1640(a)(1);
- c) For Statutory damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a);
- d) For Statutory damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1640(a)(2);
- e) For Punitive damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(2);

- f) For attorney fees and costs provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(3), 15 U.S.C. § 1681o(a)(2) and 15 U.S.C. § 1640(a)(3);
- g) For any such other and further relief, as well as further costs, expenses and disbursements of this action as this Court may deem just and proper.
